LETTERS SENT THEM.

How Constables Were Informed of Violations of Liquor Laws.

JURYMEN ARE NOT TO BE SEEN. At Least Judge White Intimates What Will be Done if They Are. NEWS OF THE COURTS YESTERDAY

The first business in the Criminal Court yesterday was the charging of the grand jury by Judge White. After they were sworn a special oath was administered to usual advice submitted, contained some pertinent points. In defining their duty to uphold the law, he said: By an honest enforcement of the law the increase of crime would be diminished. Publi officers whose duties are to see that the laws are enforced, consive with and aid the violation of the laws, and sometimes receive remuneration for non-interference. If the public servants did their duty there would not be one-fourth

He referred particularly to two classes of crime-the violation of the liquor laws and those who engage in lawlessness and riot. He added that he had heard that they had already been approached in regard to cases that would come before them, and that the person was a constable. It was their duty, he said, to report to the Court anything that may be said to them by constables regarding cases before them. After being charged the grand jury re-tired. For their first day's work they reurned the following true bills:

Richard Foley et al, James Stevenson, Patrick Sherlock, John O'Brien, Ed McLaughlin et al, Clarence Mitchell, Andrew Kinslow, Patrick Fitzgerald, H. Bruno, larceny and receiving stolen goods; Joseph Sanderchie, aggravated assault and battery; John Hurley, felonious assault and battery; Charles Jougherty, Daniel Stanley, assault and battery; Grant Daniel Stanley, assault and battery; Gran Wheeler, seduction. THE BROWN DIVORCE. The Decree Granted by the Courts After Reviewing Testimony. decree of divorce was granted yesterday in the case of William M. Brown against Sarah J. Brown. Mr. Brown is a contractor and builder, and lives at the Hotel Boyer. The couple were married in 1863 and lived on Walnut street, East End, until 1887, when, it is claimed, Mrs. Brown left her husband. They have five children, most of

KNABLE & SHUSTER, when he returned found that his family had left, going to his wife's friends in Altegheny. Mrs. Brown afterward refused to return home or have anything to do with her hus-band. Rev. J. M. Richmond, pastor of the Shadyside Presbyterian Church, of which the lamily were members, endeavored to effect a reconciliation, and though the husband was willing, the wife was not. As a conclusion Mr. Brown sued for the divorce which he obtained yesterday, his wife not opposing it. H. B. Herron, Esq., yesterday was ap-BRAIN workers who cannot sleep, can, minted commissioner in the divorce case of they will take according to directions Fred.

A Queer Transaction.

Thomas Meredith, yesterday, sued Philip Bohlander, of Elizabeth, to recover $1,302. Meredith states that two years ago he received pension money amounting - to $1,377 38. Bohlander immediately took all the money but the 33 cents from him, telling him to come along and he would deposit the money in bank for him. Burns, Andrew Kinslow, James Stevenson, Charles Dougherty, Daniel Stanley, John Hurley. JUDGE EWING yesterday granted a charte Mr. Phillips, the foreman. The Judge's to Pittsburg Council No. 117, of the Jr. O. U. A. M. An application had been filed last year by the council for a charter, but it was excepted to by the State Council. The application was then amended so as to comply with the requirements of the State Council, and the charter was granted yesterday. JOHN J. MILLER yesterday entered suit against Peter Murray for $5,800 damages. Mil-ler claims that Murray sued him before 'Squire Douglass, charging him with having induced Murray to cancel a mortgage against Miller, after which Miller refused to pay the money. Miller was arrested and lodged in jail for court, but the grand jury ignored the bill, and Miller now wants damages for false arrest.

FOR CITY WORK. The Contracts Awarded by the Board Yesterday Afternoon.

The Department of Awards met yesternay afternoon and awarded a few contracts, the bulk of the bids received being opened and referred to the clerk for tabulation. The most important contract let was that for the erection of a new police station in the Tirty-sixth ward. There were six bidders and the figures were close.
